Ruby Short McKim-The Quilt Designing Gem-Ruby Short McKim was a true quilt pattern designing pioneer nearly 100 years ago. Her youngest granddaughter, Merrily McKim Tuohey is lovingly reissuing and remastering her grandmother's beloved patterns from 1916-1937 to make them available to quilt makers today. Janette Dwyer has a quilt trunk show of Ruby's twenty-one syndicated newspaper patterns. Ruby's patterns and books will be available for purchase at the show.
